Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, December 12.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Glouceſter, ſenſibly alarmed by the late outrageous Attempt made on your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, offer our unfeigned Congratulations on the providential Interpoſition manifeſted for the Safety of your Majeſty, and the Welfare of the Kingdom at large.

We are grieved that any of our Fellow Subjects ſhould be ſo loſt to every Senſe of thoſe national Bleſſings we enjoy unrivalled, as to perpetrate a Deed, which not only menaced the Life of our juſtly beloved Sovereign, which not only menaced the Life of our juſtly beloved Sovereign, but the fatal Subverſion of our happy Conſtitution; nor can we better expreſs our Abhorrence of thoſe Principles which could inſtigate to ſuch an Attempt, than by declaring our Reſolution to cooperate in every Meaſure likely to bring to Puniſhment the daring Offenders, and to teſtify our Attachment to your Majeſty, and our Obedience to the legally conſtituted Authorities of this Country.

Signed, at the unanimous Requeſt of a County Meeting.

Samuel Edwards, Sheriff.

[Preſented by Earl Bathurſt, accompanied by the Marquis of Worceſter, the Lord Biſhop of Durham, Right Hon. Lord Ducie, —— Hicks, Eſq; Rev. Mr. Tatterſal, and George Talbot, Eſq.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Angleſey, aſſembled in the Shire Hall, at Beaumaris, in the ſaid County, on Wedneſday the 2d Day of December, 1795.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects of the County of Angleſey, impreſſed with the deepeſt Sentiments of Reſpect and Affection to your Majeſty, have heard with the utmoſt Abhorrence of the daring and atrocious Attempt made on your ſacred Perſon, on your Majeſty's Way to the Houſe of Parliament. Senſible as we are of the invaluable Bleſſings we derive from the happy Form of Conſtitution, as in this Country by Law eſtabliſhed, we cannot think but with Horror and Deteſtation of an Act, by which it's very Exiſtence would have been ſo

ſo greatly endangered: We therefore feel it our Duty to come forward on this Occaſion to declare our firm Attachment to a Sovereign, who has always been diſtinguiſhed for his Attention to the Intereſts and Happineſs of his People, and to profeſs our Readineſs to uſe every Exertion in our Power which may be neceſſary for the Protection of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Support of your Authority, perſuaded that by ſuch Conduct alone we can either merit or obtain a Continuance of that equitable Adminiſtration of the Laws which we have ſo long and uninterruptedly experienced under your Majeſty's Reign.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting,

John Bulkeley, Sheriff.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hereford.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hereford, beg Leave to expreſs our heartfelt Concern for the atrocious Outrage committed againſt your Royal Perſon in the Exerciſe of one of the moſt ſacred Functions of the Conſtitution. We ſincerely hope that Guilt of ſo deep a Die can attach only to a Part of the Community, as inconſiderable in their Numbers as flagitious in their Principles, while the Nation at large is animated by the pureſt Spirit of Loyalty for their Monarch, and of Affection for the Father of his People. We feel the livelieſt Indignation againſt the Perpetrators of ſuch criminal Enormities, and the treaſonable Motives which inſtigated them; and truſt to the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature to ſtrengthen every conſtitutional Safeguard of a Life ſacred in the Eye of the Law, venerable by the Example of it's Virtues, and at this eventful Criſis eſſential to our national Security. Be aſſured, Sire, that for the Attainment of an Object ſo important to our Happineſs, ſo dear to our Hearts, we will chearfully hazard our Lives and Properties. May the Feelings of your Majeſty and of your Royal Houſe, ſeverely wounded by the mad Exceſſes of deſperate and deluded Men, be healed by the cordial Gratulations of a free, loyal and united People. May a gracious and watchful Providence protect your ſacred Perſon in the peaceful and permanent Poſſeſſion of the Throne of your Anceſtors, and of the Affection of your Subjects.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Thomas Harley, and Sir George Cornewall, Bart. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

County of Flint.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders, in full County Meeting aſſembled, beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape and Deliverance from the late Attack of wicked and deſigning Men made upon your Royal Perſon, and to expreſs the deepeſt Concern that there ſhould be lurking within your Majeſty's Dominions any Perſon wicked enough to offer the late Violence and treaſonable Reſiſtance to your Perſon and Government, by endeavouring to impede your Progreſs to and from your Parliament, at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion, in Defiance of the Laws, and in open Violation of all Order, Decency and Reſpect to your high and exalted Station as King of this Realm. And we do moſt ardently hope, that ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo breaking the Law and committing ſuch treaſonble Act may be diſcovered, and ſuffer that Puniſhment for ſuch Offence as by the Laws of this Land is expreſſed. At the ſame Time, Sire, we cannot be without our Suſpicions that ſuch evil and malicious Deſigns are ſtirred up and excited by the many ſeditious Meetings and Aſſemblies held in and about the City of London. We do moſt fervently intreat your Majeſty to uſe every Effort, with which the Laws of this Country have intruſted you, to diſperſe and ſuppreſs ſuch Meetings as are not only highly offenſive to the public Peace and good Order of Society, but threatening to overturn, if not ſpeedily prevented, your Majeſty's united Kingdoms and Government.

That your Majeſty may continue long to reign in Peace and in the Hearts of your Subjects is the Wiſh of this your loyal County.

Mold, November 23, 1795.

[Preſented by Sir Roger Moſtyn, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid County, and Major Williams, Repreſentative in Parliament for the Town of Flint.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth, humbly beg Leave to offer unto your Majeſty our ſincereſt and warmeſt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the daring and outrageous Attempt which lately endangered your ſacred and invaluable Life.

We have uniformly deteſted thoſe Principles of Sedition and Anarch which we are convinced have given Birth to this foul and atrocious Act, and we ſhall in future view them with increaſed Horror and Deteſtation, when we reflect that, in the Perſon of your Majeſty, they aimed a Blow at the very Exiſtence of our glorious Conſtitution, and wickedly endangered the Security and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms.

We beg Leave at the ſame Time to expreſs our grateful Acknowledgments of the Wiſdom, Expediency and Neceſſity of thoſe Meaſures which, in conſequence of your Majeſty's Recommendation, your Two Houſes of Parliament have thought proper to adopt for the better Security of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and for preventing ſeditious Meetings and Practices, and we rely with Confidence on the Vigor and Firmneſs of the Executive Powers for the due Execution of the ſame.

Deſcended from a Race of Men unconquerably attached to Freedom, we truſt that we have not degenerated from our Anceſtors; we are firmly perſuaded that our Liberties are ſecure, and can only be ſecure under that Form of Government we now enjoy; we acknowledge with Gratitude your Majeſty's wiſe and equitable Adminiſtration of it, and we are reſolved to maintain both inviolate: We ſee no Danger but from that contagious Spirit of Innovation and Defiance of the Laws which we are anxious in the ſtrongeſt Manner to reprobate, and, if neceſſary, ready with our Lives and Fortunes to reſiſt.

Robert Lloyd, High Sheriff.

[Preſented by Robert Lloyd, Eſq; High Sheriff, accompanied by Sir Robert W. Vaughan, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Chief Citizens of your Majeſty's antient and loyal City of Hereford, in Common Council aſſembled, approach your Majeſty with Congratulations for the providential Deliverance of your Royal Perſon from the imminent Danger to which it has been lately expoſed.

When we reflect upon the Circumſtances of this Outrage, that it was made at a Time when your Majeſty was proceeding to the Exerciſe of one of the moſt ſacred Functions of the Conſtitution, that of meeting the great Council of the Nation in Parliament aſſembled, our Minds are filled with Sentiments of Horror and Aſtoniſhment, and we want Words to expreſs our Deteſtation of ſo nefarious an Attempt.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that, ſenſible of the many and ſalutary Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, we will earneſtly embrace every Opportunity to promote the impartial Adminiſtration of Juſtice and dutiful Submiſſion to the Laws, which alone can give Security to the Liberties, and increaſe the Proſperity of the Community.

Given under our Common Seal, at the City of Hereford, the 23d of November, 1795.

[Preſented by Lieutenant-Colonel Scudamore, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the City of Carliſle, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape from the late daring and treaſonable Attack on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

We beg Leave to expreſs our utter Abhorrence, not only of this deſperate Outrage offered to your Majeſty, but alſo of the dangerous Principles which have of late been ſo induſtriouſly propagated, and which we cannot but conſider as connected with this alarming and deteſtable Attempt. We are thankful to God's Providence for his gracious Interpoſition in Behalf of your Majeſty and your Dominions; and we reſt in firm Confidence, that the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature will adopt Meaſures which ſhall effectually prevent ſuch criminal Projects in future.

Permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, under the Impulſe of ardent Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon, of lively Gratitude for your mild and paternal Adminiſtration, and of zealous Attachment to the admirable Conſtitution of our Country, to declare that we will, each in his reſpective Station, and to the utmoſt of his Power, promote Veneration towards your Majeſty and Obedience to the Laws; fully ſenſible that by theſe Means only we can ſecure to ourſelves the Continuance of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy.

[Preſented by J. C. Curwen and Wilſon Braddyll, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Free Burgeſſes, Freeholders and Houſeholders of the Borough and Town of Great Grimſby, in the County of Lincoln, feel ourſelves ſecure and happy under the Auſpices of your Majeſty; and when we conſider the late atrocious Attack upon your Royal Perſon, are ſtruck with Horror and Indignation. We tender our ſincereſt Congratulations to you, Sire, and the Nation at large, on your providential Safety. We truſt alſo in the Wiſdom of Parliament to make ſuch Laws as may beſt tend to preſerve the Life of our beloved Sovereign, and our glorious Conſtitution.

[Preſented by John Harriſon and Dudley North, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Corporation of Free Burgeſſes, Inhabitants of the Borough of Great Grimſby, in the County of Lincoln.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Great Grimſby, do moſt earneſtly preſume to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is with the utmoſt Degree of Concern and Indignation that we have heard of the late treaſonable, traiterous and wicked Attempt on your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon.

Strongly impreſſed with the Excellence of our ineſtimable Conſtitution, and fully ſenſible how very much your Majeſty's Virtues have contributed to your People's Happineſs, we conſider ourſelves bound by every Principle of Duty, Affection and Gratitude, to humbly offer our Tribute of Congratulation on your Majeſty's Deliverance from the Attacks of thoſe deſperate Aſſaſſins, by the Interference of the Almighty Diſpoſer of Events; to whom we moſt fervently offer up our Thankſgivings, and ſhall never ceaſe our Prayers for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, on which the Happineſs, Welfare and Intereſt of your Subjects ſo materially depend.

We moſt humbly requeſt that your Majeſty, with the Advice of your Parliament, will be pleaſed to frame ſuch Laws as will in future prevent the daring and treaſonable Attempts of a deſperate and inſidious Banditti, who aim at the Safety of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and with that the total Deſtruction of our great, precious and unparalleled Conſtitution.

[Preſented by Lieutenant-Colonel Loft.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Town of Sunderland, in the County of Durham.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sunderland near the Sea, with Sentiments of the utmoſt Loyalty and Affection, humbly preſent our Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Preſervation from the late moſt profligate and deſperate Attempt of a rebellious Faction upon your ſacred Perſon. We approach the Throne with the moſt heartfelt Abhorrence of an Act ſo atrocious in itſelf, and ſo replete with Danger to a Country deeply intereſted in the Life of ſo beloved a Sovereign. With the moſt earneſt Wiſhes that the Legiſlative Body may ſucceed in their patriotick Endeavours for the Prevention of ſuch Attempts in future; and that ſhould the Bill for the Suppreſſion of ſeditious Meetings and political Conventions, now pending in Parliament, be approved by the other Branches of the Legiſlature, it may alſo be ſanctioned by the Royal Authority; that ſo your Majeſty may long continue to ſway the Sceptre of their Kingdoms, and promote the Happineſs of your Majeſty's Subjects.

[Preſented by Rowland Burdon, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Brechine.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Brechine, in Council aſſembled, humbly approach your Majeſty, to expreſs our ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, and to offer our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the daring and atrocious Act of Violence made on your ſacred Perſon.

We were filled with inexpreſſible Deteſtation and Abhorrence at the villainous Attack againſt the Life of our moſt gracious Sovereign, the ſole Object of whoſe Reign has been to promote the Happineſs and Welfare of his People; and we truſt Parliament, in it's Wiſdom, will take effectual Meaſures to prevent any ſuch daring Outrage in future.

Signed, by our Appointment, and in our Preſence, this 3d Day of December, 1795 Years.

John Smith, Provoſt.

[Preſented by Alexander Allardyce, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for Aberdeen, Montroſe, Aberbrothock, Brechine, and Inverbervie.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of your Royal Borough of Queensferry, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our warmeſt Congratulations on your happy Eſcape from the late atrocious Attempt made on your Royal Perſon, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our unſhaken Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and to that excellent Conſtitution under which it is our Happineſs to live.

While we are grateful to Almighty God for your Majeſty's Safety, we conſider the late Intervention of His Providence as giving us a Pledge of the Continuance of our national Happineſs under your mild and equitable Reign; and as we feel it to be our Duty it ſhall ever be our Pride to defend your Royal Perſon and Government againſt the Attempts of domeſtic Traitors and foreign Foes.

That your Majeſty may be ever under the peculiar Care of Almighty God; that He may bleſs the Queen, the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, and others of the Royal Family, is the ernneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

Signed, in our Name and at our Deſire, by our Chief Magiſtrate, at Queensferry, the 30th Day of November, 1795 Years,

James Taylor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

We humble requeſt your Majeſty will accept our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late outrageous Attack on your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous; that you may live in the Affections and Eſteem of your People; and that your Crown may deſcend to your lateſt Poſterity, is the ſincere With and ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Servants.

Given under our Common Seal this 2d Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Richard Gurney Clerk, Mayor.

[Preſented by Sir Chriſtopher Hawkins, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Grampond, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach your Preſence with the warmeſt Affection for your Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

We humbly requeſt your Majeſty will accept our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late outrageous Attack on your Royal Perſon.

We (humbly conceiving that a Return of Plenty and National Proſperity can only be ſecured to your faithful Subjects by reſtoring to them the Bleſſings of Peace) humbly pray your Majeſty to exerciſe your Royal Prerogative for accompliſhing ſo deſirable an Object.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and that you may live in the Affection and Eſteem of your People, is the ſincere Wiſh of your loyal and faithful Servants.

Given under our Common Seal this 3d Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Daniel Watts, Mayor.

[Preſented by Sir Chriſtopher Hawkins, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Borough of Tamworth.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Tamworth, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our warmeſt Congratulations on your late Eſcape from the violent and atrocious Attack made on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon by ſome of the moſt unprincipled of your factious and deluded Subjects.

Permit us, at the ſame Time, to expreſs in the ſtrongſt Terms our utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence of the Conduct of thoſe Men, who either joined in or were privy to this Inſult; the Heinouſneſs of of which (were it capable of Aggravation) was increaſed by it's being committed at a Time when your Majeſty was in the Exerciſe of that Part of your Royal Function which it is the peculiar Happineſs of Engliſhmen to witneſs and boaſt of, that of meeting the Two other Branches of the Legiſlature in Parliament.

That the Almighty King of Kings may continue to be your Defence againſt all your open and ſecret Enemies, Enemies; that He may not only protect your Perſon, but direct and bleſs your Councils, ſo that during the Remainder of your Reign, which we ardently wiſh may be long and happy, we may have nothing to dread either from foreign or domeſtick Foes, is the fervent and earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Pariſh of Minchinhampton, of Rodborough and Overing and Places adjacent, in the County of Glouceſter, approach your Majeſty to expreſs our Grief for the highly criminal Outrages that were lately committed, to the Danger of your Majeſty's Perſon, and to the Interruption of your Paſſage to your Parliament, and to declare our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſuch diſloyal and ſeditious Attempts upon your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to declare our Readineſs to ſacrifice every Thing we poſſeſs for the Protection of your Majeſty in all the Honours, Reſpect and Reverence, as well as all the legal Authority, belonging to your Royal State, being fully perſuaded as we are, that nothing we poſſeſs, neither our Liberty nor our Property, can be ſafe, unleſs your Majeſty, the Guardian of the Laws, be in Safety.

We cannot contemplate this unexampled Inſult on your Majeſty without calling to our Minds thoſe Conſiderations that are ever before us and make ſo ſignal a Contraſt with diſloyal Outrage; the Tenor of your Majeſty's Government, ſo uniformly mild in every Part of it's Adminiſtration, the unbounded and univerſal Demonſtrations of Loyalty and Affection among your Subjects, never were more manifeſt than at this Moment, and the national Character of Britons, always averſe from Acts ſo ferocious and ſo unmanly; what Manner of Men muſt thoſe infatuated few be who have ſo degenerated from the Manners of their Countrymen, what can they promiſe to themſelves, and by what Motives can they be actuated?

We cannot but expreſs our deep Regret, that the Promulgation of dangerous Opinions reſpecting your Majeſty's Perſon and Government and the eſtabliſhed Laws ſhould enjoy ſuch Impunity: Truſting to your Majeſty's Wiſdom for the Remedy, or by recommending to your Parliament to provide ſuch as to their Wiſdom ſhall ſeem proper, we are, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, with moſt inviolable Attachment, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Servants.

[Preſented by the Marquis of Worceſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Chief Steward, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Leominſter, with Sentiments of the moſt fervent Attachment and Loyalty, beg Leave to offer our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential and happy Eſcape from perſonal Injury, in your Paſſage to and from your Houſe of Parliament.

Convinced as we are of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, we are no leſs ſurpriſed than alarmed that any Perſons ſhould be found within theſe Realms capable of ſuch an atrocious Outrage upon your Majeſty's Royal Perſon; and we are prompted both by Affection and Duty to expreſs our utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence at ſo flagitious and traiterous an Attack, tending not only to diſſolve all ſocial Order and publick Tranquillity, but to wound the Conſtitution in it's moſt ſacred Part, and thereby deſtroy the general Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms.

Permit us alſo to expreſs our Joy at finding that the infamous Societies and Seminaries of Sedition and Treaſon in the Metropolis are now become the Subject of Parliamentary Diſcuſſion, which we hope will terminate in enacting ſuch Laws as will in future effectually ſhield your Majeſty from ſimilar Treachery and Inſolence.

[Preſented by Thomas Harley, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Corps of Cavalry of the Town and Neighbourhood of Market Drayton in the County of Salop, impreſſed with the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty, think it our Duty, in the preſent momentous Criſis, when the wild Doctrines of ſeditious Aſſemblies have daringly ripened into Action, (and which call for the active Interpoſition of the Legiſlature) to make a public Expreſſion of our unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and the Conſtitution.

Duly ſenſible of the Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe, mild and paternal Government, we received, with inexpreſſible Horror and Indignation, the Account of a late moſt atrocious Attempt on your ſacred Life; and we humbly beg Leave, in common with all good Subjects, to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the Deliverance which, under the protecting Hand of Providence, your Majeſty ſo happily experienced on that Occaſion.

Moſt ardently praying that the Efforts of a deſperate Faction, forgetful both of their Duty and Happineſs as Britons, may always prove equally abortive; and that your Majeſty's valuable Life and the Brunſwick Line may long be continued to theſe Kingdoms, though we form but a ſmall Part of your Majeſty's armed Force and faithful Yeomanry, yet firm and determined in the Support of your Majeſty's Government, we unanimouſly devote our Lives and Fortunes to it's Defence, and ſubſcribe ourſelves your Majeſty's moſt faithful and dutiful Servants and Subjects.

[Preſented by Richard Whitworth, Eſq; Commandant.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Manor, Hundred and Pariſh of Chatham, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on your happy and providential Eſcape from the Dangers to which you have been recently expoſed.

When we reflect on your Majeſty's private Virtues, and on your paternal Care for the Welfare of your People, we are amazed that any ſhould be ſo miſguided and abandoned as to attempt Violence on a Life which is deſervedly dear to every Well-wiſher to the Peace and Security of his Country. And when we conſider that this Outrage and Violence were committed at a Time when your Majeſty was in

in the Exerciſe of that Branch of your Power which is an eſſential Part of the Conſtitution we feel, if poſſible, an increaſed Indignation againſt the Perpetrators of ſuch an horrid Act.

We derive, however, no ſmall Conſolation from obſerving the Satisfaction and Joy that have been teſtified on your Majeſty's Deliverance from the Deſigns of your Enemies; and while we are earneſt to join in this general Teſtimony we ſhall not ceaſe to offer up our Prayers for the Preſervation and long Continuance of your Majeſty's Life: Nor will we fail to promote, as far as in us lies, that Loyalty to your Perſon, which is obligatory upon us both by Duty and Gratitude, and that Reverence for the Laws of our Country, which is abſolutely neceſſary, not only to ſecure the publick Tranquillity, but to maintain and perpetuate the diſtinguiſhed Pre-eminence which this Nation has ſo glorioufly and enviably enjoyed.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the underſigned Inhabitants, Houſeholders, reſident within the Borough of Lewes, beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our Abhorrence of the late atrocious Attack on your ſacred Perſon, and our Happineſs in your Safety.

We are truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild and paternal Government, and we pray that the Almighty, in Mercy to your People, may long preſerve you to be their King and Father.

We heartily lament the individual Diſtreſs and the publick Burthens which the preſent War has occaſioned; but, remembering it's Origin and Cauſe, and being convinced of your Majeſty's Diſpoſition ever to promote the Welfare of your People, we rely with Confidence on your Majeſty's gracious Aſſurances to your Parliament, that "ſhould the preſent Criſis in France terminate in any Order of "Things compatible with the Tranquillity of other "Countries, and affording a reaſonable Expectation "of Security, and Permanence in any Treaty which "might be concluded, your Majeſty will meet the "Appearance of a Diſpoſition to negociate for a "general Peace on juſt and ſuitable Terms, with an "earneſt Deſire to give it the fulleſt and ſpeedieſt "Effect."

In the mean Time we will ſupplicate the Almighty to proſper your Majeſty's Endeavours for the common Good, and to fruſtrate the evil Deſigns of your foreign aud domeſtick Enemies.

[Preſented by the Hon. Henry Pelham, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough,]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Commonalty and Inhabitants of the Town of Folkeſtone, in the County of Kent, humbly approach your Majeſty to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the providential Eſcape your Majeſty has recently experienced, and to expreſs onr utmoſt Abhorrence of the daring and horrid Outrage by which your Majeſty's Life has been endangered, and that at a Time while your Majeſty was in the actual Diſcharge of one of the many important Duties of your exalted Station, are anxious to teſtify our Abhorrence of the Act, and to renew our Profeſſions of our firm and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to expreſs our Determination to guard and protect thoſe invaluable Pledges of our Happineſs againſt every Attempt of Sedition and Violence.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we are fully ſenſible of the ſuperior Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Adminiſtration of the Laws of our wiſe, free and approved Conſtitution, and that we were never more deeply impreſſed with a Conviction of the Importance of your Majeſty's Life, nor ever more grateful for it's Preſervation.

We cannot conclude this Addreſs without expreſſing our fervent Wiſh and Prayer that your Majeſty may long continue to reign on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a loyal and faithful People.

W. Knight, Mayor, Chairman.

[Preſented by the Earl of Radnor.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of Frome, being truly ſenſible of the manifold Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, and being moſt firmly attached to your Majeſty by the indiſſoluble Ties of Duty and Affection, deſire Permiſſion thus to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the outrageous Violence lately offered to your Royal Perſon.

We beg Leave alſo to expreſs our ſincere Wiſhes that the Hand of Divine Providence may long, very long preſerve to us ſo valuable a Life, and that your future Days may be full of Health and tranquil Felicity.

[Preſented by Gore Langton, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Somerſet.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy Mayor, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Fowey, and Parts adjacent.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deputy Mayor, Aldermen, nd Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Fowey, and Parts adjacent, humbly requeſt your Majeſty to accept our ſincere and hearty Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the daring and violent Attack made on your Royal Perſon in paſſing to and from the opening of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

Having long experienced the Bleſſings of our happy Conſtitution, and your Majeſty's juſt and liberal Government, we cannot but look on ſuch a flagrant Violation of the Laws with the utmoſt Deteſtation and Horror.

We humbly beg Leave to expreſs our Determination to exert ourſelves in the Execution of the exiſting Laws, and ſuch other Regulations as Parliament may enact for the Prevention and Suppreſſion of ſeditious Meetings tending to inflame the Minds of the Ignorant and Unwary, and to deſtroy all Order and good Government.

We pray that ſuperintending Providence, which has ſo happily reſcued your Majeſty from the violent violent Attempts of a desperate Faction, long to preserve to us and all your loyal Subjects the Blessings of your Reign.

[Presented by Earl Mount Edgcumbe.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Steward and Bailiff of the Borough, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Cirencester, humbly address your Majesty to express our unfeigned Concern at the late daring Attempt against your Royal Person. Sensible of the many Advantages which we have enjoyed under your mild and merciful Reign, we feel ourselves peculiarly interested in the Preservation of the Life of a Monarch to whom, from Gratitude as well as Duty, we are attached. The near Connection which there manifestly existed between the late Attempt and those pernicious Principles which have been so industriously disseminated in this, and have produced such fatal Consequences in another Country, convinces us that the Attack was directed, not only against your Majesty's Person, but against that Constitution to which we owe our Prosperity.

While we acknowledge our Gratitude to Divine Providence for having graciously preserved your Majesty's Life, and devoutly pray for it's Prolongation, we earnestly hope that such effectual Remedies will be applied by the Wisdom of Parliament as may prevent a Repetition of similar Outrages.

[Presented by Hicks Beach, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, accompanied by Lord Bathurst.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Privates of the different Volunteer Corps of the County of Devon and City of Exeter, having heard, with the utmost Indignation, the late daring and atrocious Attempt against your Majesty's Person, beg Leave to approach you with heartfelt Congratulation on your Majesty's providential Escape.

Inspired with Sentiments of the most ardent Loyalty to your Majesty, and of determined Attachment to the Constitution, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that the Arms you have been graciously pleased to confide to us are in the Hands of Men who are animated by one Spirit, and who are determined, on every Occasion, to exert themselves in Support of the Laws and the Preservation of our present happy Form of Government.

To our fervent Prayers to the Supreme Disposer of Events that your Majesty's Life may be long continued, for the Benefit of your Country, we subjoin a hearty Wish, that the Authors and Perpetrators of the late horrid Attempt may speedily meet their merited Punishment.

[Presented by Colonel Rolle, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Devon, accompanied by Lieutenant-Colonel Orchard and Major Willett.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgesses and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Malmesbury, in the County of Wilts, gratefully sensible of our Duty, and the great Obligation we owe to our most gracious Sovereign, Principal and Protector of the Law, Rights, and Liberties of a free People, secured to us by a long-established Constitution, from Innovation, and from Invasion, make this open Declaration of our utter Detestation and Abhorrence of that horribly criminal Attack upon your Royal Person and Government, by a deluded and infatuated Mob, instigated by the secret Machinations of seditious and traiterous Abettors of our Enemies, now in Action for the Purpose of the total Overthrow of the envied and happy Government of this free Country.

With awful Respect to the Glory of Majesty, we tender this our sincere and loyal Address of Congratulation on your Majesty's providential Escape from that late abominable Outrage, with the Assurance of our chearfully joining, with our Lives and Fortunes, in the Aid and Defence of your Majesty and Government, and vigorous Prosecution of this just and necessary War, the only Means of obtaining a safe, honorable and lasting Peace.

In Testimony of these our Sentiments, we, the Alderman, High Steward and Capital Burgesses of your ancient and loyal Borough of Malmesbury, in Behalf of ourselves and the Free Burgesses of the said Borough, have signed our Names, and set the Common Seal of our Borough.

[Presented by Charles Long, Esq;]

To the KING.

SIRE,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Dingwall, beg Leave thus to approach your Royal Person, to express the Joy we feel at the late Escape, which your Majesty so happily made, from the Ruffian Hands of tumultuous Violence. As Ministers of the Gospel, we rejoice at the Preservation of a Life in whose uniform Example the Obligation of every moral Duty, tending to ennoble the Nature of Man, and advance the Welfare of Society, is fortified by a conscientious Observance of all the Ordinances of Religion: As Britons, we exult in the Safety of a Personage, whose Inviolability is intimately connected with the full Vigour of a Constitution, the practical Advantages of which make the State of this Kingdom the Admiration and Envy of surrounding Nations. While we deplore the equally flagitious and indecent Outrage which your Majesty sustained, it gives us the sincerest Satisfaction to be able to pledge our most solemn Assurance, that, amidst the various Opinions respecting Men and Measures, which Freemen in a Period of Enquiry and Science must necessarily entertain, we know not an Individual among those committed to our Charge who does not feel Abhorrence at Sedition and Disloyalty of every Kind. With these Sentiments, our fervent Prayer is, that Heaven may pour it's choicest Blessings on your Majesty's Head; that your exemplary Consort, and every Branch of the Royal House, may ever experience the Protection and Favour of Providence; and that when your Majesty shall late be called to still higher Enjoyments, a Descendant may never be wanting, of your Royal Line, to sway the Sceptre of this Kingdom with equal Honour to himself, and unimpaired Prosperity, Freedom and Happiness to his People.

Signed, in our Name and Presence, by John Downie, Moderator.

Dingwall, November 25, 1795.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers and Volunteers of a Corps of Infantry at Faverſham, in the County of Kent, aſſociated for the Purpoſe of defending and ſupporting the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, do moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from the late atrocious Attack on your ſacred Perſon, and to expreſs our Abhorrence of ſo baſe an Attempt to deſtroy and ſubvert our glorious Conſtitution.

May your Majeſty live long to protect and defend our Religion and Laws; and permit us to aſſure you, moſt gracious Sovereign, that we ſhall always be ready to ſupport and defend, to the utmoſt of our Ability, ſuch wiſe and ſalutary Meaſures as now are or may hereafter be brought forward for the Security and Protection of the Lives and Fortunes of all your Majeſty's loving Subjects.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Royal Tain Volunteers.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Royal Tain Volunteers, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne upon the preſent Occaſion. Highly ſenſible of the Happineſs and Security we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and impreſſed with a proper Regard for our ineſtimable Conſtitution, we have learned with Surprize and deep Abhorrence of the late daring and traiterous Attack on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

Deign then, moſt gracious Sovereign, to accept of this Addreſs and Congratulation of your faithful Royal Tain Volunteers upon your Majeſty's happy Eſcape, as a Teſt of the unalterable Affection they owe to your Majeſty as the Father of your People, in Defence of whoſe Perſon and Government they have taken up Arms, and on whoſe perſonal Safety the Welfare of the Nation depends.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free and grateful People is the fervent Prayer of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Royal Tain Volunteers.

Signed, in our Preſence, this 26th Day of November, 1795, by Alex. Baillie, Major.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Grantham Loyal Corps of Volunteer Infantry.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects compoſing the Grantham Corps of Volunteer Infantry, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, and to unite with others your loving and faithful Subjects in Sentiments of Congratulation on the happy and providential Eſcape of your Majeſty from the late Attack ſo deteſtably intended againſt your Royal Perſon and Dignity, and the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Realm and Government.

We lament, that under the Auſpices of a Conſtitution ſo wiſely calculated for the Protection and Happineſs of all Orders of Men, there ſhould be any ſo miſerably depraved, and ſo blind to themſelves and Society at large, as to attempt the Ruin of the Fountain Head, and Source of their Enjoyments, by endangering the Perſon and Life of their Sovereign. For Wretches ſo miſguided and debaſed we feel much Pity, but greater Reſentment and Abhorrence.

We obſerve with heartfelt Satisfaction that neceſſary Precautions are about to be taken for preventing the attendant Evils of Sedition and Treaſon; and we concur in Opinion that all Laws adopted for due Subordination are in no wiſe diminiſhing, but ſecuring to us our inalienable Rights and Privileges, and are alſo additional Proofs of your Majeſty's paternal Regard and Affection for your People.

We pray for your Majeſty's long Life, and that it may pleaſe the All-wiſe Ruler of the Univerſe to continue to bleſs and preſerve your Royal Perſon (in all Happineſs and Proſperity) the King and Ruler of this our envied Country and Conſtitution; and as Soldiers, we conclude with a faithful and earneſt Tender to your Majeſty of our ſervices in Support of the Laws at all Times, but more eſpecially in the Hour of Danger, which God avert.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Loyal Loughborough Volunteer Infantry.

SIRE,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Loyal Loughborough Volunteer Infantry, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our affectionate Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and that it is with great Concern we find your Majeſty has lately been groſsly inſulted, when going to attend your great National Duty in Parliament. We ſincerely rejoice in the providential Delivery of your Royal Perſon from the daring and infamous Hands of wicked and ill-deſigning Men; and we alſo aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Attachment to the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, under which we enjoy the Comforts and Happineſs of Life.

Animated by the Duty we owe to the happieſt of Governments, we are determined to render every Service in our Power for the Preſervation of Peace and good Order.

John Creſwell, Chairman.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Nottinghamſhire Corps of Gentlemen and Yeomanry, united for the Defence of your Majeſty, and for the Maintenance of Order and good Government, cannot refrain from expreſſing our Grief and Indignation at the atrocious Violence recently offered to your ſacred Perſon, and our Deteſtation of the Principles which muſt have inſtigated it. We humbly offer our Congratulations to your Majeſty on your happy Eſcape, and we are thankful to Almighty God for the Preſervation of a Life which is deſervedly dear to all Britons, and on which the Safety and Happineſs of theſe Realms materially depend.

Zealouſly attached to our Sovereign, and fully ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under our preſent happy Form of Government, we ſee with Horror the traitorous and inſidious Attempts of the Enemies of both: And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall always be ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Royal Perſon and Dignity, and for the Preſervation of that Conſtitution, which, under the auſpicious Reigns of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Family, has attained to ſuch a Degree of Perfection as to ſecure the Happineſs of this Country, and to excite the Envy and Admiration of the World.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the South Holland Squadron of Lincolnſhire Gentlemen and Yeomen Cavalry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of the Long Sutton, Holbeach and Spalding Troops, or South Holland Squadron of Lincolnſhire Gentlemen and Yeomen Cavalry, warmed with Affection and Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, humbly approach the Throne with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's late providential Deliverance from the hoſtile and dangerous Attempts of a Set of deſperate Traitors.

Fully ſenſible of the Equity and Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Government, we feel indignant at thoſe Doctrines tending to create Diſcontent and Miſchief, which have of late been diſſeminated by evil-diſpoſed Perſons in ſeveral Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions. Conſcious of the Value of our glorious Conſtitution, we are armed and arrayed under your Majeſty's Authority, with a full and determined Reſolution to defend that Conſtitution, and your Majeſty, who forms ſo eſſential a Part of it, againſt all Attempts to overturn ſocial Order and lawful Authority; and we pray to God that your Majeſty's precious Life may long be continued, to diffuſe Happineſs to your faithful People.

Permit us, Sire, to declare our firm and united Reſolution to ſupport, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and our happy Conſtitution; and that we rely, with Confidence in the Wiſdom of Parliament, that ſome Laws will be enacted for the better Security of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and alſo for more effectually preventing ſeditious Aſſemblies, where Attempts are made to involve this Country in all the Miſeries that Anarchy and Confuſion can produce.

We return our Thanks to your Majeſty for the Aſſurance made to Parliament that you will reſtore to your Kingdoms the Bleſſings of Peace, when it can be obtained upon juſt and honourable Terms.

By the unanimous Order and Approbation of the Corps,

Edmund Robinſon, Captain Commandant.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Aux Etats de l'Iſle de Jerſey, l'An Mil ſept cent nonante cinq, le neuviéme Jour de Novembre. Les Etats aujourd'hui aſſemblés, pour le prémiere Fois, depuis que la facheuſe Nouvelle eſt arrivée du Danger auquel leur debonnaire Souverain a été expoſée, par l'Attentat de quelques Méchans ſur ſa Perſonne ſacrée, employent le premier Moment de leur Sçéance pour témoigner, par une humble Adreſſe à Sa Majeſté, l'Horreur et l'Indignation que leur inſpire cet énorme Crime: Ils aſſurent Sa Majeſté que la Loyauté, toujours inébranlable de ſes fidelles Sujets de cette Iſle, eſt augmentée, s'il eſt poſſible, à l'Occaſion préſente: Que leur Attachement pour la Perſonne de Sa Majeſté et ſon illuſtre Famille en eſt redoublé. Ils ſe repréſentent, avec la plus vive Reconnoiſſance tous les Bienfaits et la Protection dont ils jouiſſent ſous ſons heureux Regne, et ils uniſſent leurs Coeurs et leurs Voix pour invoquer, avec Ferveur, le Toutpuiſſant de conſerver Sa Majeſté, et la combler de ſes plus précieuſes Graces.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the States of your Majeſty's Iſland of Jerſey, hearing, with deep Affliction and Concern, that your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon has lately been expoſed to Danger by the audacious Attempts of wicked Men, ſeize the firſt Moment of our Meeting to lay at your Majeſty's Feet the Effuſions of our Hearts on this alarming Event.

Impreſſed with the moſt lively Sentiments of Love and Attachment to your Majeſty, we behold the dreadful Outrage with the utmoſt Horror and Indignation; and whilſt we congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape, we offer up our Praiſes and Thanks to Almighty God, who, in his tender Mercies to us and all your Subjects, has protected your Majeſty's precious Life and Perſon.

The Loyalty of your faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of this Iſland, at all Times pure and inviolate, glows in every Boſom at this preſent Moment with redoubled Affection.

Feeling an emulous Pride at the Recollection that our Anceſtors have highly diſtinguiſhed themſelves by their Fidelity to their Princes on many perilous and trying Occaſions, we crave Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we are prompted both by Duty and Inclination not only to follow, but, if poſſible, to ſurpaſs the bright Example. For that ſteady Attachment to the Sovereign, which has invariably been the Boaſt of the Inhabitants of this Iſland, we have additional Motives, under your auſpicious Reign, when we reflect on the peculiar Favors and Advantages conferred upon us by your Majeſty, and on your unceaſing paternal Attention to our Welfare.

That the Almighty may preſerve and prolong your Majeſty's Life and pour His choiceſt Bleſſings on your auguſt Perſon and illuſtrious Family is the fervent Prayer of your moſt dutiful Subjects, the States of the Iſtand of Jerſey.
